

Lightning Talks

Our January meeting will be an “audience participation” session – Lightning Talks. Lightning Talks are short informal 5-minute presentations, on any computer-science related topic.

Come and watch... or volunteer to give a talk yourself! If you give a talk, it should be on a topic related to Computer Science (hardware, software, theory of computation, application and use, education...). No discussions of politics, sports, or Oscar nominations (except for films about famous computer scientists and engineers). We will have a sign-up list for the talk topics during the first 5 minutes of the meeting...

Date: Thursday, January 15, 2015, 8:00 pm.
(Refreshments and networking at 7:30 pm.)
Place: Small Auditorium, Room CS 105
Computer Science Building, Princeton University
